That's great that you're in [REDACTED]

So Ripple is actually a new version of BitCoin (BTC) called Ripple Credits (XRP). One of the differences between BTC and XRP is no 'mining', we give them away. So we're free to give away lots of Credits to key influencers. I also really wanted you to have a bunch given all you've done for me over the years. So how about this: instead of investing, let me give you XRP 10,000,000 when the ledger is finalized - probably Jan 1.

Going to be fun!
